

XM Instant Traffic & Weather give me instant access to this info without waiting for commercials. I do pay for this service and want to continue it. To stop this service would only prove to that certain media conglomerates have the power to tell me what I must listen to. If I pay for a service, I should be able to get that service.